

Meet at the Peak

AHP 2013 • COLORADO SPRINGS

JUNE 20-22, 2013 ~ COLORADO SPRINGS MARRIOTT ~ COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO

GUEST SPEAKERS

PATTI COLBERT

Patti Colbert is a "hands-on" promoter for the horse industry. From starting at the age of nine with a paint pony to the management of large equine facilities and organizations, she has "done it all." Most of you will know her as the creator of the Extreme Mustang Makeover events, but in Colorado Springs, Patti addresses AHP members on the American Horse Council's new national marketing initiative, "Time to Ride," a program developed to help rejuvenate the horse industry. The Keynote Address is on Friday morning, June 21 following the announcement of the Equine Industry Vision Award.

RYAN DOHRN

Ryan Dohrn is the CEO of Brain Swell Media LLC, which he founded after 15 years in the mainstream publishing and media industry. As the former General Manager of Morris

Magazines Interactive, Ryan created and managed the Internet strategies for 12 magazine web properties, one of which was top 500 consumer magazine Western Horseman. Ryan presents two days of learning. Friday's sessions include Our Future with Tablets, Revenue Generating Web Sites and Digital Products and Strategic Planning/4D Revenue Media Success Model. Ryan's Saturday's sessions feature a sales track that includes four sessions focused on motivating and teaching you and your sales staff.

JONATHAN DORN

Jonathan Dorn, General Manager, AIM

Outdoor Group and Editor-in-Chief, Backpacker, presents two sessions on Friday afternoon,

June 21. A lifelong outdoor enthusiast, Jon loves to explore the world's most remote wild places and has been helping others enjoy new adventures for 15 years through his writing and editing. In recent years, he has led Backpacker to a series of editorial honors, including five National Magazine Awards. His sessions include Walking the Editorial/Advertising Line and How to Serve Your Readership: One Voice, Multiple Media, Broadening the Brand.

MILTON C. TOBY

Milt Toby is the author of Dancer's Image: The Forgotten Story of the 1968 Kentucky Derby, winner of the Dr. Tony Ryan Book Award for the best book about Thoroughbred racing published in 2011 and an American Horse Publications award for the best equine book of the year. An attorney based in Kentucky, Milt serves as Chair of the Contracts & Conflicts Committee for the American Society of Journalists and

SHARING IDEAS

Sharing Ideas sessions are where members can discuss topics, exchange ideas and ask questions in an informal environment.

FRIDAY, JUNE 21

Book Publishing: Pathways to Publication

1:30 p.m.—3:00 p.m.

Moderated by Milt Toby
Authors have more publishing options now than ever before. From traditional publishers to self-publishing, ebooks or print, the panel will explore the various ways authors get their books to readers. Come with questions and share your own experiences.

Marketing Smart

3:30 p.m.—4:30 p.m.

Moderated by Emily Joyce, SmartPak

SATURDAY, JUNE 22

Taking, Preparing and Choosing Photos for Publication

9:30 a.m.—10:30 a.m.

Moderated by Diana De Rosa
This session will center on either choosing or taking photos and what you should be thinking about. We'll also talk about why photos are so important and which photos capture people's attention and why. This session is meant for photographers and non-photographers so that those choosing the photos can be guided by the photographers on what to look for and the photographers can be guided on how the publications go about choosing their photos. Both publications and photographers can benefit from this program.

Multi-Platform Editorial Crafting

11:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m.

Moderated by Whitney Allen, USHJA
Participants: Kim Brown, THINinc and Christine Hamilton, The American Quarter Horse Journal

Tablet and Phone Apps

1:30 p.m.—2:30 p.m.

Moderated by Tracy Gantz
No matter what needs doing, there truly is an App for that. But how do you find the best ones amid the thousands now available? Let's share what works in our business—and we'll find some fun ones, too.

Careers in Equine Publishing for Students

3:30 p.m.—4:30 p.m.

Moderated by Christine Hamilton, The American Quarter Horse Journal
Participants: Gary Carpenter, Colorado State University Equine Sciences Program; Marian Carpenter, veteran editor, author and journalist; and Tara Christiansen Matlser, Internet editor for AQHA Publications and The American Quarter Horse Journal
Where are the jobs to be found in the equine industry and equine media/publishing? How do I get my foot in the door? AHP has lined up three equine professionals with the specific experience and savvy to help answer these questions and more for AHP student members and student attendees. Don't miss out on the tips and advice they have to offer.

THINGS TO DO IN COLORADO SPRINGS

Colorado Springs, Colorado and the surrounding region have a “mountain-load” of attractions and things to do. The top visitor attractions are Pikes Peak, The Garden of the Gods, United States Olympic Training Center, and the United States Air Force Academy. But there are endless options. A couple of favorites are Glen Eyrie Castle Tours and the Pro Rodeo Hall of Fame. AHP seminar attendees will have an opportunity to tour the Pro Rodeo Hall of Fame at Thursday's welcome reception. The quaint town of Manitou Springs, Old Colorado City and downtown Colorado Springs are a short drive from the Colorado Springs Marriott, hotel seminar headquarters.

MANITOU SPRINGS

Hidden between Garden of the Gods and America's most famous mountain, Pikes Peak, lies the magical town of Manitou Springs. “Manitou”, a Native American word for “spirit”, describes this beautiful mountain community. Eleven naturally carbonated mineral spring fountains, located throughout this Historic town, run free for all who wish to enjoy the healing benefits.

A vibrant artisan community continues to grow and prosper in downtown Manitou Springs and there are more than a dozen galleries and studios, many run by the artists themselves. In addition to the galleries, the downtown area is packed with dozens of specialty shops, gift shops, clothing boutiques, and antique stores.

While Manitou Springs may be small in size, it is big in dining. Whether you're craving pizza or pancakes, a light snack or an elegant gourmet dinner, Manitou has a dining experience for every taste.

Several Pikes Peak area attractions are located in Manitou Springs, but may require a car. The Manitou and Pikes Peak Cog Railway takes you to the top of Pikes Peak elevation 14,115 feet. At the Cave of the Winds, you will descend into the colorful depths of Colorado. Miramont Castle and the Cliff Dwellings Museum will take you back in time.

Whether it's drinking from the springs, hiking, exploring, shopping, dining or just having fun, the options are endless in Manitou Springs.

For more information, visit <http://manitousprings.org/> or download the 2013 Manitou Visitors Guide.

SHUTTLE SERVICES

On Thursday, June 20, AHP will offer seminar attendees and their guests a complimentary roundtrip shuttle to Manitou Springs. Shuttle will depart the Marriott at 9:45 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. and will pickup in Manitou Springs at 12:45 p.m., 3:45 p.m. and 6:15 p.m.

The Marriott also offers a complimentary shuttle van service to hotel guests within a 7 mile radius. You must check the hotel front desk for availability.

ATTRACTIONS

For a list of area attractions, click here to download a PDF file.

If you are attending the Thursday night Welcome Reception, your admission to the ProRodeo Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy is included.
