Preparing Your Brands for the Cookie-Less Future

Magnolia (First Floor)

Presenter: JENNY HARRIS, Chief Marketing Officer at Equine Network; JASON CRAIN, Director of Data Analytics

In this session, we delve into the impending depreciation of third-party cookies and its profound implications for businesses and brands. As the digital landscape evolves and privacy concerns take center stage, companies must adapt their strategies to navigate this data shift effectively. Join us as we explore the challenges and opportunities presented by this change and discover practical strategies for preparing your business and brand for a cookie-less future.

Don't miss this opportunity to stay ahead of the curve and ensure your brands remain competitive in an increasingly privacy-conscious world.

As a strategic marketing and digital expert with over three decades of experience, Jenny Harris has helped dozens of Fortune 500 companies evolve their digital ecosystems, data strategies, and growth-centric marketing efforts in the ever-evolving digital landscape. Her marketing expertise and niche knowledge as a competitive amateur hunter/jumper rider gives her a deep understanding of the community's needs and preferences, enabling her to tailor marketing strategies that truly connect with the equine world.
